LADIES WERE MAD

But the Officer Only Smiled and Arrested the Party.

It was Friday morning last, when an automobile from Toledo containing the chauffeur and three members of the fair sex came rolling down Front street in the usual "we own the earth" manner.

A funeral procession was approaching. Signal was given for the autoist to stop to avoid danger to the occupants of a carriage, the horses of which were badly frightened.

The auto driver slowed up and then seeing a chance he directed his machine toward the procession and passed through between the teams.

He had not proceeded far when Marshal Fuller and Deputy Marshal Mills approached and invited the party to accompany them to the court.

The women of the party made a grand display of temper and declared the affair to be nothing but a "hold up," but Fuller smiled and replied "well, you better come tell that to the court." They came, and deposited $30 for appearance in court on Tuesday.

The auto driver appeared before Squire Cook on Tuesday and was fined $25 and costs.

Motion was filed for new trial which was overruled and bill of exceptions filed.

T. F. & F. EXTENSION

It is now almost a certainty that the Toledo, Fostoria-Fremont electric line now running from Findlay to Fostoria will be completed to Toledo. It has not yet been decided whether the Hocking Valley will be paralleled from Pemberville, which would take the line through Lemoyne and Walbridge or the O. C. which would take it through Luckey and Stony Ridge. This will be settled at once, however, and the work will be started as soon as possible.

The company will build to a point where they connect with the city lines, as is done by all interurban lines leading into the city, none of them having lines within the city.

DOING THEIR DUTY

Scores of Perrysburg Readers are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidney's duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow. Urinary trouble, diabetes.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all. Perrysburg people endorse our claim.

George H. Hufford, Cor. Railroad and Second Streets, Perrysburg, Ohio, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills is not a new remedy to me. I used them a year ago when I was painting, which work is very injurious to the kidneys. At the time I first used them, I was suffering from a severe attack of kidney complaint. It seated itself through the small of my back and at times was so severe and painful that I was compelled to lay down more than once until it subsided. The action of the kidneys were too frequent and at times painful. A friend of mine who had used Doan's Kidney Pills and had been cured advised me to try them and I got a box. They proved to be just as he stated. That one box banished my backache and corrected all other difficulties. I gave Doan's Kidney pills to my son who was troubled with a weakness of the kidneys and they cured him in a very short time. You can refer to me at any time as a strong endorser of Doan's Kidney Pills, for the repeated tests we have given them proves to my entire satisfaction that Doan's Kidney Pills are all they are represented to be."

CONCERNING TAXATION

Facts People Should Know About Ditch Matters.

The question of taxes is one over which there will always be contention and dissatisfaction and which some people are inclined to think is largely a system of legalized robbery. Public improvements are necessary and requested by the public, many of whom do not understand the system of assessing the cost and collecting the tax necessary for the payment thereof and are many times inclined to blame the officials for their taxes and accuse them of misappropriating funds. For this reason a little education along these lines may be beneficial to all concerned.

The Bowling Green Sentinel has detailed a very capable man to take up tax matters and explain them and the following article from that paper is one that should be read by every citizen:

Samuel Leverton, of Perrysburg township, was in the city about ten days ago and made the Sentinel a pleasant call. He has been reading our tax stories and said there was one thing he would like to have us explain to him and that was why he had to pay $55 tax on the S. F. Carter road on his eighty acres of land, while his neighbor, Ted DeVerna, who has 79 1/2 acres, pays but $49.50.

We looked over the map and were unable to explain the matter to Mr. Leverton but agreed to take it up and give our readers an article about it.

On looking into the matter we find that Mr. Leverton was mistaken about this being a road. It goes under the name of the S. F. Carter Ditch, No. 1237, and runs along the west side of the farms of Mr. Leverton and Mr. DeVerna, emptying into an outlet north of both farms on which both these gentlemen have to pay whenever it is cleaned out. The fact that the dirt was thrown up on the road and possibly improved it, may have given Mr. Leverton the idea that this was a road improvement.

Now, Mr. Leverton's farm is south of that of Mr. DeVerna. Consequently he is farther from an outlet than is Mr. DeVerna. That is, Mr. DeVerna's farm has greater natural advantages in the way of drainage than has the farm of Mr. Leverton. Both may be equally easy to tile, but the water drained from Mr. Leverton's farm has to travel half a mile farther than does the water from Mr. DeVerna's farm.

That extra half mile costs Mr. Leverton something. He cannot expect to use the ditch along his neighbor's place without paying something for it. It would not be fair to make his neighbor dig a ditch for Mr. Leverton's accommodation.

Just suppose that Mr. DeVerna's land lay so that it could be more readily drained to the east instead of the west. Suppose the land to the west of the Carter ditch and opposite Mr. DeVerna's farm could be more readily drained to the west. What would result? Mr. Leverton would have to dig the ditch along his farm and then continue it until he found an outlet at his own expense. In such an event it would cost him more money, wouldn't it?

Now law and justice do not contemplate that a man shall sponge off his neighbors in the matter of ditches any more than in eating at another's table right along without paying anything. Every ounce of water that is thrown into the Carter ditch carries with it more or less dirt and helps to ultimately fill up the ditch so that it has to be cleaned out again. The part along Mr. DeVerna's farm would not get filled up quite so soon, if the water from Mr. Leverton's farm was Doing Business Again.

I am now doing business again as of old, and am still gaining daily." Best tonic medicine on earth. Guaranteed by Wm. Comstock & Son, druggists. 50c.

DUNBRIDGE HIGH SCHOOL

Commencement Exercises A Great Success and Credit to Schools.

Commencement of the Dunbridge High School was held last Friday evening in the Presbyterian church of that village. Nine students received their diplomas after having completed a ten years course and their standing in their school work and the manner in which they acquitted themselves at the commencement reflected much credit upon themselves and Prof. M. R. Hammond, their Superintendent.

The church was appropriately decorated with flowers and the class colors of yellow and black were artistically displayed.

Hon. Ralph D. Cole, of Findlay, gave the class address and made one of the greatest talks of his life. His remarks were along the line of education. He said there was nothing too good for the boys and girls of the county.

Prof. Hammond made an able appeal to the parents of the townships urging they send their children to the high school at Dunbridge which was really a township affair and asked for the hearty co-operation of the parents in the conduct of the school.

The diplomas were presented by C. J. Dauer, president of the school board.

The graduates and the part each assumed in the exercises are as follows: Elmer Fuller, oration; Floyd Pope, essay; Freda Ewegen, oration; May Binniker, essay; Ethel Brown, oration; Ada Trepanier, oration; Mabel Fuller, essay; Ada Shoemaker, oration; Florence Thompson, oration.

The commencement was attended by a large audience there being 500 in the church and many more who could not gain admittance.

COST OF HIS AX

Hardware Merchant Got Back at Penurious Purchaser.

A rather amusing story is told on a man who went into a hardware store of a neighboring town and wished to purchase an ax, says an Exchange. Being shown the article and informed that the price was $1.15, he said: "Why, I can get that same kind of an ax from a mail order house for 90 cents."

"Very well," said the hardware man, "I will give it to you for the same price, provided that you will do the same with me as you would with them."

"All right," replied the customer as he handed over a dollar bill; the merchant giving him back ten cents in change.

"Now," said the hardware man, "I want 25 cents more to pay express charges," which the purchaser gave him. "How much did your ax cost you?"

"One dollar and fifteen cents," the man answered.

"Very good; now give me the five cents more for money order fees and postage," which the purchaser had to hand over. "Now how much did your ax cost you?"

"One dollar and twenty cents," said the customer.

"Not so cheap after all," said the merchant, whereupon he picked up the ax tossed it back on the shelf and told the customer to call for it in ten days as that would be as soon as he could get it if he had ordered it from the mail order house.

Bitten by a Spider.

Through blood poisoning caused by a spider bite, John Washington, of Bosqueville, Tex., would have lost his leg, which became a mass of running sores, had he not been persuaded to try Bucklen's Arnica Salve. He writes: "The first application relieved, and four boxes healed all the sores." Heals every sore. 25c at Wm. Comstock & Son's, druggists.
